Notice of Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Case

12/15

For the debtors listed above, a case has been filed under chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code. An order for relief has been entered.

This notice has important information about the case for creditors, debtors, and trustees, including information about the meeting of creditors and deadlines. Read both pages carefully.

The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtors, the debtors' property, and certain codebtors. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, garnish wages, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtors. Creditors cannot demand repayment from debtors by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although debtors can ask the court to extend or impose a stay or within 30 days after any amendment to the list of exemptions is filed, except as otherwise provided under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 1019(2)(B) for converted cases.

Confirmation of a chapter 13 plan may result in a discharge. Creditors who assert that the debtors are not entitled to a discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 1328(f) must file a motion objecting to discharge in the bankruptcy clerk's office within the deadline specified in this notice. Creditors who want to have their debt excepted from discharge may be required to file a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the same deadline. (See line 13 below for more information.)

To protect your rights, consult an attorney. All documents filed in the case may be inspected at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed below or through PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records) at <https://ecf.tneb.uscourts.gov>.

The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice.

To help creditors correctly identify debtors, debtors submit full Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers, which may appear on a version of this notice. However, the full numbers must not appear on any document filed with the court.

Do not file this notice with any proof of claim or other filing in the case. Do not include more than the last four digits of a Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number in any document, including attachments, that you file with the court.

The meeting may be continued or adjourned to a later date. If so, the date will be on the court docket.

Prior to the meeting, creditors asserting a security interest in the debtor's property must provide proof to the bankruptcy trustee that the interest has been perfected. See Local Bankruptcy Rule 3001-1(b).

Location:

Bankruptcy Meeting Room, 1st Floor, Howard H. Baker Jr. U.S. Courthouse, 800 Market Street, Knoxville, TN 37902

8. Deadlines

The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive these documents and any required filing fee by the following deadlines.

Deadline to file a complaint to challenge dischargeability of certain debts:

Filing deadline: 1/2/18

You must file:

- a motion if you assert that the debtors are not entitled to receive a discharge under U.S.C. § 1328(f) or
- a complaint if you want to have a particular debt excepted from discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2) or (4).

Deadline for all creditors to file a proof of claim (except governmental units):

Filing deadline: 1/31/18

Deadline for governmental units to file a proof of claim:

Filing deadline: 3/21/18

Deadlines for filing proof of claim:

A proof of claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. A proof of claim form may be obtained at www.uscourts.gov or any bankruptcy clerk's office.

If you do not file a proof of claim by the deadline, you might not be paid on your claim. To be paid, you must file a proof of claim even if your claim is listed in the schedules that the debtor filed.

There are three ways to file a proof of claim in a bankruptcy case: (1) electronically; (2) using the CM/ECF system; or (3) by mail or in person. To file a proof of claim electronically, you should use the electronic proof of claim application located on the court's website at www.tneb.uscourts.gov under the Claims button. To file a claim using the CM/ECF system, by mail or in person, you should complete a proof of claim form under the Forms tab of the court's website. The proof of claim may then be filed using the CM/ECF system, or filed in person at, or mailed to, the clerk's office at the address shown on paragraph 6 of this Notice. If you wish to receive proof of its receipt by the Bankruptcy Court, please enclose a copy of the proof of claim together with a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Secured creditors retain rights in their collateral regardless of whether they file a proof of claim. Filing a proof of claim submits the creditor to the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court, with consequences a lawyer can explain.

For example, a secured creditor who files a proof of claim may surrender important nonmonetary rights, including the right to a jury trial.

Do not include this Notice with any filing you make with the Court.

Deadline to object to exemptions:

The law permits debtors to keep certain property as exempt. If you believe that the law does not authorize an exemption claimed, you may file an objection.

Filing deadline: 30 days after the conclusion of the meeting of creditors, or within 30 days after any amendment to the list of exemptions is filed, whichever is later (But see Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 1019(2)(B) for converted cases).

For more information, see page 3 >

9. Filing of plan and objections to plan	A copy of the debtor's plan is attached or will be sent separately to you by the debtor. Among other things, the plan may set forth a proposed valuation of collateral securing a secured creditor's claim. Unless a timely objection to confirmation is filed, the value in the plan will become the allowed secured portion of a creditor's claim, and the difference between the creditor's total claim and its allowed secured claim will be paid as an unsecured claim. All objections to the plan must be in writing. In order to be timely, an objection must be either filed with the bankruptcy clerk before the date and time scheduled above for the meeting of creditors or lodged with the Chapter 13 Trustee at the meeting. If no objection to the plan is filed, no confirmation hearing will be held and the court may confirm the plan without a hearing. If an objection is filed, a confirmation hearing will be held 11/15/17 at 09:00 AM at Courtroom 1C, Howard H. Baker Jr. U.S. Courthouse, 800 Market Street, Knoxville, TN 37902, unless continued at the meeting of creditors. See Local Bankruptcy Rule 3015-3
10. Creditors with a foreign address	If you are a creditor receiving a notice mailed to a foreign address, you may file a motion asking the court to extend the deadline in this notice. Consult an attorney familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions about your rights in this case.
11. Filing a chapter 13 bankruptcy case	Chapter 13 allows an individual with regular income and debts below a specified amount to adjust debts according to a plan. A plan is not effective unless the court confirms it. You may object to confirmation of the plan and appear at the confirmation hearing. A copy or summary of the plan, if not enclosed, will be sent to you later, and if the confirmation hearing is not indicated on this notice, you will be sent notice of the confirmation hearing. The debtor will remain in possession of the property and may continue to operate the business, if any, unless the court orders otherwise.
12. Exempt property	The law allows debtors to keep certain property as exempt. Fully exempt property will not be sold and distributed to creditors, even if the case is converted to chapter 7. Debtors must file a list of property claimed as exempt. You may inspect that list at the bankruptcy clerk's office or online at https://ecf.tneb.uscourts.gov. If you believe that the law does not authorize an exemption that debtors claimed, you may file an objection by the deadline.
13. Discharge of debts	Confirmation of a chapter 13 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of a debt. However, unless the court orders otherwise, the debts will not be discharged until all payments under the plan are made. A discharge means that creditors may never try to collect the debt from the debtors personally except as provided in the plan. If you want to have a particular debt excepted from discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2) or (4), you must file a complaint and pay the filing fee in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the deadline. If you believe that the debtors are not entitled to a discharge of any of their debts under 11 U.S.C. § 1328(f), you must file a motion by the deadline.
